J. R. KROEH.

THIS YEAR I had the unusual experience of being sent as delegate to both the annual meeting of the Cat Fanciers' Association and of the Cat Fanciers' Federation. It is about the same phenomenon which occurred in connection with both of them that I am moved to rush into print. And that is that in both cases a noticeable proportion of member clubs neglected to send in the names of their delegates. Undoubtedly some clubs did not even elect delegates. Others elected delegates who could not attend and sent proxies. At the C. F. A. meeting, out of some twenty clubs eligible to send delegates, only two sent in the full list (three each) to which they were entitled. At the C. F. F., with a smaller number eligible clubs there was a somewhat better proportion of representation.

There seems to be some sort of idea—where there is any idea at all—that the governing body is a small, select group of individuals who indulge in star chamber proceedings and who must not be interfered with, or who, if appealed to, must be approached with bated breath.

On the contrary the clubs are the Associations and the officers may be elected from the delegates only. Each club is entitled to three delegates and it should be to the interest of the clubs to select, as delegates, persons able and willing to hold office, as it is rather a feather in a club's cap to secure office in the governing body.

The C. F. A. has a working executive board of seven which transacts the business of the Association between annual meetings except when amendments are desired for which a special meeting of all the delegates is required. This board is elected annually and no two of the seven may be selected from representatives of the same club. On the occasion of this annual meeting, it took some careful calculations to find seven persons who filled these requirements.

The C. F. F. board is composed of one of the three delegates from each club and a majority of clubs must be represented to form a quorum. A few clubs failing to send delegates and delegates from a few other clubs being unable to attend would tie up the whole transaction of business.

I strongly urge all cat clubs to take up the study of the constitution and show rules of the Association to which they belong. One or two sections might be read and discussed at each meeting until the whole has been thoroughly examined and understood. An association is only as strong as its membership. Intelligent fulfilling of its obligations to the whole body should be the aim of every club. The officers of each club should see to it that before show time, the members are familiarized with the rules; for at least ninety-nine out of every one hundred cases of friction at shows are due to ignorance of the show rules.

Editor Cat Review:

Re abortion prevention. A queen eight years old has had five miscarriages and five living litters. She is a great pet and jumps, plays and eats like a kitten. She was allowed the run of her usual haunts when carrying kittens, but abortion was so frequent that I suspected germs of some kind and had an examination made. No germs being present I took the bill of health to a stud owner and had my queen mated. Then I set up a Watson cage in which she made her home and raised her family. Not being sure that it was more than a coincidence, I took the same precautions this year I took away her roommate and kept her in one room or in the cage; in fact, I eliminated all but cage, air, sun and food. She kept a sweet disposition and had her kittens without difficulty.

I think that part of the success was due to a most nourishing and varied diet, besides her two big meals a day.

"Warp."

Editor Cat Review:

In answer to Mrs M. Crouch's queries:

No. 1. What to do with a queen that goes into fits at time of mating? I should try giving a sedative.

Would it not be a good idea to let the queen live where she could see the male cat some time before breeding, especially if she is a young cat?

No. 2. What is the cause of spongy growth around the thumbs of the front feet? This condition might be caused by skin trouble; if so, I would advise moistening daily with romidine, a non-poisonous iodine.

This condition is also caused by poverty of blood; such cases can only be cured by a nourishing diet of raw beef containing a small amount of fat and a pinch of kal-fos night and morning. At midday give a small saucerful of evaporated milk, Pet Brand (undiluted). Feed the cat as much as it will eat.

No cereals should be given as they are heating to the blood and indigestible.

Lanolin rubbed in daily will relieve the irritation.

Very truly,

D. B. Champion.

Concord, Staten Island, N. Y., April 19, 1922.

Editor Cat Review:

I am against raw meat diet for breeding queens. I wish that I could have a record like Miss Champion's, as I feed raw meat exclusively at other times (when they will eat it). I have listed my successes with four queens:

1915—2 premature litters—1 litter died.

1916—1 litter died—1 litter taken by operation, 1 kit lived 2 weeks. Mother died in 5 years as a result of the operation—1 litter was nursed by a foster mother; rickets.

1917—1 litter died—1 litter all lived.

1919—2 litters premature.

1920—1 litter died.

1921—1 litter, 2 died—1 litter premature—1 litter died—1 litter, 1 kit, mother had no fluids, no milk, kit starved.

1922—1 litter, all lived.

Premature births caused by excitability of cat, same cat raised litter:

1917—On mixed diet.

1921—1 died, fits; rest raised, mixed diet. Mother given this mixed diet after birth.

1922—Mother had plenty of broth, milk, eggs, etc., from day of mating.

1916—Rickets, healthy queen, nursed by healthy queen, absolutely meat fed. Kits had meat and lime water only.

Mortality various years. Kits born normal and vigorous, in 3 days developed abnormal stomachs, refused nourishment and passed beyond. 1921 litter by another queen started same way, by enema, oils and J. K. saved all but one. This kit trouble got to be a nightmare with me, but I feel that I have conquered. The litter this year are as good as I have ever had. Taking plenty of nourishment they promise to thrive with no setbacks. I might add that the queen refused raw meat till they were six days old.

I prefer the meat and held out for years, but got to the point where I had to try something else. A litter is due from a queen that has lost all but two kits in her whole lifetime, and who nursed the kits with rickets. They will be fed with fluids and a mixed diet. I feel sure of success.

Under-the-Table Manners

It's very hard to be polite

If you're a cat.

When other folks are up at table

Eating all that they are able,

You are down upon the mat

If you're a cat.

You're expected just to sit

If you're a cat.

Not to let them know you're there

By scratching at the chair,

Or a light, respectful pat

If you're a cat.

You are not to make a fuss

If you're a cat.

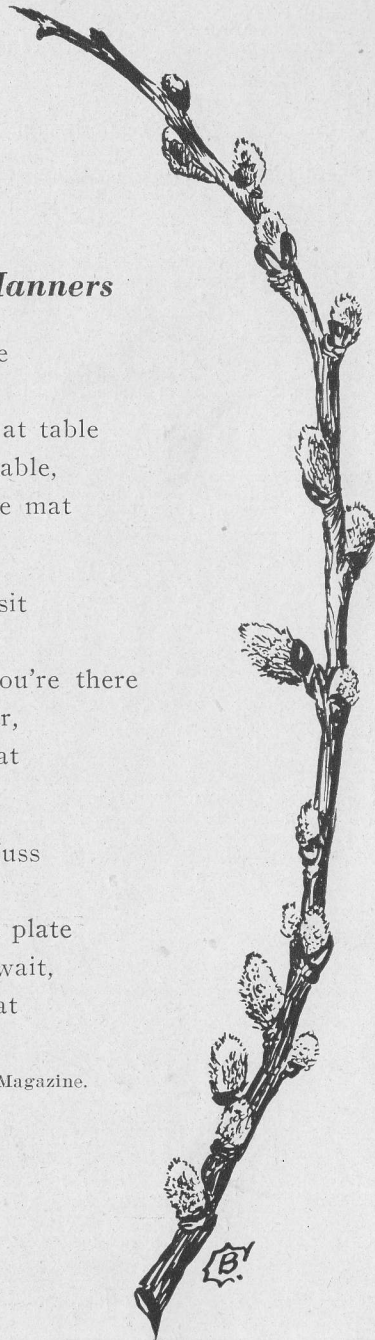

Tho' there's fish upon the plate

You're expected just to wait,

Wait politely on the mat

If you're a cat.

EDITORIALS

LADY of influence, who lives in the suburbs of New York, was met in town by your editor a few days before "Be-Kind-to-Animals Week." She had just received a telephone message from her home saying that there was a cat on her roof "crying its head off." As we knew that this lady does not like cats—she says that she is afraid of them—we at once became concerned for the cat on the roof. She supposed that it had gone up there after a bird, but did not see how it could have gotten there as there was no easy way to climb and the roof was tiled. We suggested that dogs had probably chased it up, and led the conversation to different rescues of cats, some by the Prevention Society, some by individuals and some by the fire department. At mention of the fire department she thought that it might be a good idea to get them to come and play the hose on it to drive it down! We began to broil, but said calmly, "You would not want to be cruel to it." This seemed to strike home.

Now, if a woman of intelligence, who has many social opportunities is so lacking in this kind of culture and in sympathy for any animal, it behooves us to make much of these yearly Be-Kind-to-Animals Weeks and to prolong the spirit of them throughout the year. It is difficult to change or to teach grown people, but our hope is with the children, and through the influence and example of lovers of animals everywhere.

HE worming of our cats is troubling many people. We have been asked again and again what is the best medicine to give and that is just the question we ourselves would like to ask.

Will not our well-known successful breeders all write and tell us what to do? Yes, all. We should like to make a thorough up to date study of this question. Not only tell us what to give and how to give it, but how often cats should be wormed, and what are the signs that indicate worms. Please.

Our own experience has been a very bitter one. One of the most intelligent cats that we have ever seen has been made so deaf by a much advertised worm medicine that she hears nothing said in an ordinary tone of voice, and since this has happened we have been told by a good many others that they also have had disastrous results from using the same medicine.

Mrs. Olive E. Gilbert has added Holden Silver Light to her family. She is Holden Mystery's mother, and Ganymede is her father.

Mrs. J. R. Ryder, of Binghamton, N. Y., sold the last of her kittens soon after her return from the United Shows in New York. She is expecting more kits soon.

Mrs. Blanchard and Miss Finney, of the Green Mt. Cat Kennel, Burlington, Vt., have had the misfortune to lose their promising white male, fifteen months old. They had expected to have him for one of their studs.

Mrs. M. M. Crouch, Bronx, N. Y. City, writes: "I got my adults all fixed for Easter. Army tents in the run and pansies growing. Rama takes a sun bath on top of the tent. He says, 'See how fine this is!' Turns a hand spring and does a few monkey shines to the tune of a phonograph next door. How they do love out of doors!"

Mrs. John Daygon, Chicago, Ill., reports having made good sales this Spring. "The cat business seems to be picking up." And she has more little kits getting ready for new homes.

The Decatur, Ill., Show had about 109 entries of cats, many of which were among the very best specimens of Illinois and adjoining States. "After all bills were paid we had some two hundred and fifty dollars in our treasury."

The Long Beach Persian Society has been organized in California. One of the members writes: "We don't think that we will have much trouble in putting on a show next Winter; we have a lot of long-haired cats here."

Mrs. Harriett V. Furness, who has taken more good cat pictures in the neighborhood of New York than anyone else, has bought a fine old country place in the Berkshires, Mass., and expects to move up there on the 22d of April, for six months, and then to return to her studio in New York for the Winter. After Mrs. Furness has done a little remodeling to the house, and thus made it really hers, we hope that she will give us a picture of it with its handsome trees.

Miss Jessie P. Baker, of Detroit, Mich., writes: "Last month I shipped a brown tabby female kitten to Idaho Falls for Mrs. E. Derville. She is much pleased with her. She wrote to me because of an old advertisement that appeared in the Cat Review several years ago."

Mrs. Doris E. Bruce, of Los Gatos, Cal., reports the sale of a lovely orange male kit to Mrs. Burke, also of Los Gatos. Mrs. Burke is very much pleased with him and has named him Amber Royal. We ought to hear from this kitten again. He has in his pedigree Torrington Sunnyside, Ch. Dandelion and other noted cats. Another of Mrs. Bruce's kits, this one, a brown tabby female, of Ch. Bruno's Best Boy strain, has gone to San Francisco, Cal.

Mrs. O. Buford Coffey, of Bristol, Va., has bought Snow-Birdie, a prize-winning white, from Mrs. Olive McKilvey, of Butler, Pa., and a white male from Mrs. Donehed, of Manteno, Ill. Also two beautiful silver queens from Mrs. A. P. Levier, of Edgerton, Va., "and a perfect beauty, a big green-eyed silver male, from Miss Eva Pope, of Kankakee, Ill. He is the finest looking cat I ever saw—such a big fine head." Mrs. Coffey also bought from Mrs. O. P. Ziegler, of Bloomfield, Pa., and sold to Mrs. Fulton Smith, a fine smoke male.

NOTES OF THE DECATUR SHOW.

The Allied Pet Stock Association of Central Illinois held a very fine show March 9th, 10th and 11th, of all kinds of pet stock, cats included, and they found that this addition was of great value to them in every way.

Nine members of the Beresford Cat Club went down to Decatur, and most of them took their cats and other members sent theirs.

We were met at the station by the show manager, Dr. Swain and Mrs. Sinclair, and escorted to the show-rooms where we met the president of the association, Mr. C. E. Deichman, the judge, Mrs. Blanche Watson, and a number of the Decatur ladies and gentlemen. The out-of-town guests were banqueted and autos were furnished to show us the sights in and around Decatur.

There were many very fine cats at the show.

Mrs. Vie A. Dormer, Cor. Sec'y.

GLENDALE CAT CLUB.

The regular monthly business meeting of the Glendale Cat Club, Cal., was held at the home of C. Grim, April 3d, with fifteen members and four visitors present. The committee for revising the constitution gave their report, and a number of new committee chairmen were elected. This was one of the most enthusiastic meetings we have had, the new members were full of enthusiasm and plans for future work, so we are expecting great things from our club this year. Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed after the business was finished.

C. Grim, Secretary.

BLUE CAT SOCIETY OF AMERICA.

The officers of the Blue Cat Society for the ensuing year are: president, Mrs. L. H. Bixby, Washington, D. C.; vice-presidents, Mrs. W. Eames Colburn, Chicago, Mrs. Karl L. Rathvon, Washington, D. C., Mrs. B. T. Woodward, Washington, D. C., Mrs. Alice R. Fitzpatrick, Toronto, and Mrs. R. J. Marshall, San Francisco; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. H. L. West, Washington, D. C.; delegate to the C. F. F.,

Miss Elsie G. Hydon, Bogota, N. J., and to the A. C. A., Mrs. W. E. Colburn, Chicago.

It was decided to extend to the members the privilege of purchasing the Blue Cat Society medal to offer at shows. Heretofore, they have been offered by the Society only. These medals may be obtained from the secretary.

Very shortly, the revised By-Laws will be sent to each member for suggestions or approval.

The treasurer was instructed to send check for annual dues to both the A. C. A. and the C. F. F.

The Society has now eight cups and trophies, and hopes to add to the list, not only for the long haired blues, but for the short haired. Several inquiries have been sent to the Society lately for the blue short haired cats, but so far, none have been found. It is to be hoped that the breeding of this beautiful variety will be revived.

Mary Hope West, Secretary.

THE SILVER SOCIETY.

The regular March meeting of The Silver Society, which was adjourned owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Churchill, took place on April 11th, at the home of Mrs. Carleton Macy, Hotel Ambassador, New York City, with the president in the chair.

The minutes of the special meeting, held February 21st, were read and approved. Miss Dorothy Champion's resignation as delegate to the C. F. F. was accepted with regret and Mrs. Edith Sicles Wood was elected in her place.

Six new members were elected.

Mrs. Lena Robson was proposed and elected delegate to the A. C. A.

The members agreed to hold a separate show next January for the benefit of The Ellin Prince Speyer Free Hospital for Animals.

An amendment to show rules was voted on as follows:

Cats entered in the champion class shall compete for all specials, but do not receive points towards champion-ships.

Champions may also be entered in the open class.

The meeting adjourned with a vote of thanks to Mrs. Macy for the use of her apartment.

Helen E. Nichols, Secretary.

EMPIRE CAT CLUB.

The regular meeting of the Empire Cat Club was held at the home of Miss J. R. Kroeh, Orange, N. J., April 8, 1922.

Routine business was transacted.

The Empire is in favor of reinstating the Orange classes for one year to see what effect it will have on shows and entries.

Discussion took place regarding awarding winners to a cat without competition.

Two new members were elected.

Miss Kroeh served a delicious luncheon.

Meeting adjourned to meet at the Hearthstone Tea-room, in May.

Madge M. Crouch, Secretary.

STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP,
MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC.,
REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CON-GRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912,

Of the Cat Review, published monthly at New York, N. Y., for April 1, 1922.

State of New York, County of New York, ss.:

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared Helen E. Brown, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that she is the editor, publisher and manager of the Cat Review, and that the following is, to the best of her knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor and business managers are: Publisher, Helen E. Brown, 35 West 130th Street, New York; editor, Helen E. Brown, 35 West 130th Street, New York; managing editor, Helen E. Brown, 35 West 130th Street, New York; business manager, Helen E. Brown, 35 West 130th Street, New York.

2. That the owners are: Miss Jenny Rose Kroeh, 268 South Centre Street, Orange, N. J.; Helen E. Brown, lessee, 35 West 130th Street, New York.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent. or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: None.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association, or corporation has any interest, direct or indirect, in the said stock, bonds or other securities than as so stated by her.

(Signature of editor, publisher, business manager),

HELEN E. BROWN.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 31st day of March, 1922.

W. H. DOMINICK.
